Rehabilitation and Training of Scavenger Families

2848. SHRIMATI BASANTI SARMA: Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the details of scavenger families identified in all the districts of the country and the details of schemes and programmes formulated by Government for their rehabilitation and training;

(b) the details of Central assistance provided by Government during the Ninth Five Year Plan;

(c) what is Central Government's policy in the said matter; and

(d) the steps being taken by Government in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRIMATI MANEKA GANDHI): (a) 5,77,228 scavenger families have been identified so far in the country. National Scheme of Liberation & Rehabilitation of Scavengers was launched in March, 1992. Main components of this scheme are:—

1. Time bound programme for identification of scavengers and their dependents and their aptitude for alternative trade through a survey.
2. Training in identified trades for scavengers and their dependents at the nearest local training institutions/centres of various departments of State Governments, Central Government and other semi-Government and non-Government organisations.
3. Rehabilitation of scavengers in various trades and occupations by providing subsidy, margin money loan and bank loan.

(b) During 1997-98 (first year of Ninth five Year Plan) Rs. 90.00 Crores was provided as Central Assistance.

(c) Central Government's policy in the matter is to completely eradicate the practice of manual scavenging by the end of the IXth Five Year Plan.

(d) The Government has incorporated a National Safai Karamcharies Finance and Development Corporation to assist scavengers alongwith Safai Karamcharies by providing loan assistance at concessional rate to take up projects as per lending guidelines of this Corporation. Besides, as referred to in reply to part (a), a National Scheme of Liberation & Rehabilitation of scavengers is also in operation since March, 1992. The Government have also set up a Statutory National Commission for Safair Karamcharies.
